

Someone rummaging through cigarette butts
next to someone smoking a brand new cigarette

Truth is stronger than fiction... but I'm particular about it.

Smoking iQOS cigarettes with the Ploomtech device...
I don't need new cigarettes, so I'll give them to someone.

By the way, the "law of magnetic poles"

"When people are struggling financially, they turn to other cruel attacks, sometimes for an extended period of time"

I can become a demon or whatever...

There is no other option.
